

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.

The members of the Woman's Institute Club are preparing for the annual Christmas festivities. They will meet this evening at the Institute, and again Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to continue the preparations. A Christmas sale will open Wednesday afternoon at the Institute and will continue through the week.

The first of a series of Saturday evening popular concerts was given last night before last in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association, in Main-st. About two hundred persons were present and enjoyed the singing of the South Carolina Jubilee Singers. The faculty of the Yonkers College of Music will furnish the music at the concert to be given on Saturday evening at the Yonkers public meeting. The first of this series of the Yonkers Theological Society, in the Grant Building, No. 20, Broadway, will be made by J. H. Russell on "The Objects of the Society." B. H. Gattell on "Successive Lives on Earth," Miss Anna M. Stah on "Brotherhood," and Mrs. E. C. Mayer on "Theology and the Children." Mr. Russell closed the meeting with remarks on "Merry Doings."

The funeral of Arthur D. Stewart, a Union veteran, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the headquarters of the Yonkers Post No. 9, of which he was a member. The services were conducted by the Rev. Charles E. Allison of the Day-Evening Presbyterian Church. In addition to members of the post, delegations were present from John C. Fremont Post, John C. Shotts and George McChellian, Grand Sons of Veterans. Members of the Woman's Relief Corps and Ladies of the Grand Army sang. The burial was in Oakland cemetery.

The Yonkers Yacht Club gave the first of a series of "club nights" on Saturday evening in the club-house, in Glenwood. The members were present in large numbers and the affair was a success. Vocal and instrumental music, readings were given by members and their friends. At the Yonkers Corinthian Club house, in Varkist, the members had supper, a concert and dance will be given on Wednesday evening.

Dr. E. H. Cook will lecture to-morrow evening in the chapel of St. Andrew's Memorial Church in the city, on "The Bible and the Adversaries." The lecture is given under the direction of the Sunday-school in all of the churches of the city.

William Read & Co., proprietors of the Empire and Simmons hat factories, have purchased the Shethar Building, in Elm-st., and will move there.

A special meeting of the Common Council has been called for this evening by Mayor Pease. The December meeting of the Board of Trade will be held to-morrow night.

MOUNT VERNON.

The Swedish Methodist Episcopal Church, in South Fulton-ave., was dedicated yesterday afternoon under the direction of the presiding elder, the Rev. C. S. Wing. Among the visiting clergymen were the Revs. C. Samuelson, C. Cederholm, James M. Buckley, H. A. Buchtel, H. W. Eklund, P. O. Logren, Olin Swanson, Benjamin Nelson and the pastor of the church, the Rev. John E. Hilberg.

A new church on Oak-st., between Charles Grunden and Charles Olson. The congregation numbers about two hundred.

The Rev. W. A. Granger, pastor of the Baptist Church, will deliver the second of a series of illustrated lectures to-morrow evening.

The Royal High School of Great Britain—Windsor, Balmoral, Buckingham and Hampton Court.

The midweek services of Trinity church will be held on Wednesday evening.

A meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club has been called for Wednesday evening.

A plan will be proposed to make the club a permanent organization and to give it an entertainment.

The fourth anniversary of the Mount Vernon, Ind., Order of Foresters, will take place in the Opera House to-morrow night.

The lodge members among the many for the day, a very good crowd of the city, and its previous attendance have been largely attended and successful.

The new St. Mary's church in Hudson was dedicated yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The blessing was pronounced by the Archbishop and was followed by solemn high mass, which was celebrated by the Rev. John J. Connelley.

Rev. Thomas Campbell, who officiated at the altar, presided and the benediction by the Archbishop, Father McCabe.

Joshua De Voe, seventy-four years old, died at his home, No. 25 South Twenty-ave., on Sunday night.

He was born in New York City and had been a resident of this city for eight years. Burial will take place in Woodlawn Cemetery next Wednesday.

NEW ROCHELLE.

Andrew Bopp, of Mamontown, who was accidentally shot through the thigh on Thursday while loading his gun at a pigeon shoot in Hickory Grove, is in a dying condition in the hospital here.

Colonel James B. Sinclair, Camp, Sons of Veterans, has elected new officers as follows: Captain, Albert M. Cornell; Lieutenants, Clarence Ferguson and Harry Keeler; adjutant, William H. Keeler; sergeant, Harry Keeler; and Harry Stevens, delegate-at-large.

George M. Davis, alternate, James A. Hackett, delegate, Harry Keeler, alternate, Elmore Miller, delegate-at-large, will be in the town hall early in January.

The first civic and masquerade ball of the Enter-prise Hook and Ladder Company will be held in the Music Hall on January 5.

James H. Hook and company William W. Molloy will term on February 1, 1894, and as he is a Republican a number of Democrats are making an effort to secure the appointment.

Among the applicants are Frank M. Ackerman, Robert Govers, M. J. Dillon, ex-Police Captain Charles E. McDougal.

Mr. Ackerman had circulated a petition to which he now has the names of about 100 persons, but the chances that a change will be made are remote, as the administration of Mr. Molloy has been efficient and satisfactory.

It is scarcely probable that the President and his staff will take action in the thirty days that intervene between the expiration of Mr. Molloy's commission and the inauguration of Mr. McKinley.

PORT CHESTER AND RYE.

For several weeks negotiations have been going on between the trustees of the Congregational and the Presbyterian churches in Port Chester, looking toward a consolidation of the congregations.

The trustees of the Congregational church are making an effort to secure the appointment. Among the applicants are Frank M. Ackerman, Robert Govers, M. J. Dillon, ex-Police Captain Charles E. McDougal.

George R. Read, president of the Board of Village Trustees of Port Chester, has entered enthusiastically into the project to secure for Port Chester a handsome park and soldiers' monument.

Mr. Read and his associates hope to have the monument ready for erecting on next Memorial Day. Their plan is to employ an expert artist to examine the grounds given by Mr. Quintard and the old Catholic Church property, and have him submit a clay model for this particular location, the model to be exhibited in the village for the purpose of obtaining the approval of the Board of Education.

The suggestions have been adopted, and Mr. Read has agreed to bear the expense of the model. The Board of Education will be held on Wednesday evening, December 13, at 8 o'clock, at which time the model will be shown.

A holiday sale will be held in the chapel of the Port Chester Baptist Church, beginning this afternoon and ending Tuesday night.

The proposition to buy the property at Rye Beach for a public park for the people of the town of Rye has been dropped by the Town Board.

The annual meeting of the Rye Club will be held on Tuesday evening, when new officers will be elected and vacancies in the Board of Trustees filled.

The children of the Episcopal Sunday-school yesterday rehearsed their Christmas carols. They will be given in Railroad-ave. has been completed and sewer by the Board of Sewer Commissioners.

The sewer is complete and the new system of the village, which is to be the best of any village of its size along the Hudson.

Thirty-two electric lights have also been added to the village, making eighty-eight in all in Broadway, connecting this village with the city of Yonkers.

A pleasant reception in honor of the fourteen new members of the Reformed Church, who were received into the church on the Sunday previous, was given in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday evening last and was largely attended.

The pastor proposes to hold these social reunions every month. The next one will be held on the evening of Friday, January 3.

Protection Hose Company has decided to hold a Christmas-tree entertainment on the evening of Tuesday, December 19, at 8 o'clock.

The committee has been appointed, and preparations are being made to make the affair the best ever given in the village.

Boys' suits and overcoats

Our only fear is that from the prices you'll imagine we're selling "cheap" overcoats and suits.

We're simply meeting dyepic business conditions with the pepsin of low prices; our standard is not lowered one little bit—there's no trash, no clothes of doubtful goodness here.

Double-breasted jackets with deep sailor collar, sizes 3 to 8; Norfolk suits, sizes 3 to 10; double-breasted suits, sizes 6 to 16—$4.

Freeze Redders, $5.50, were $7 and $8. Sizes 6 to 16.

Deep cape overcoats of blue worsted $5, were $8. Sizes 2 to 10.

Blue Melton top coats, $5, were $8. Sizes 4 to 8.

Boys' furnishings

This department is as nearly perfect and comprehensive as is possible to make. No end of dainty and useful things, and this year there's a common sense leaning towards the giving of useful gifts.
